*“In the heart of the community;
with a heart for your family”*

November 6, 2016

It thrills my heart to say, “Welcome to Revival 2016 at New Salem!” This day has been a long time coming. We’ve prayed. We’ve fasted. And then we prayed some more... all in preparation for this very day!

Several years ago, after first meeting Allen and Kevin Laws, God planted in my heart a vision of having our two families, two preaching fathers and four preaching sons, together in one meeting. All praise to the Lord for seeing fit to let it happen! This vision stems from the fact that, like many of you, I am truly and eternally grateful for my Christian heritage. The Godly legacy that has been passed down to me is a gift I do not take for granted.

I’m thankful for my papaw. Linnie Lee Robinson was a husband and a father. To many people, he was a co-worker, a friend, and a brother in the Lord. He was a guitar picker and a Gospel singer. I’m thankful for my papaw for showing me how to play the guitar and to love Louis L’Amour novels.

I’m thankful that God let me be born the son of a preacher man. My Dad instilled in me a love for the Word of God. My Dad modeled before us every day how to love God’s people. I’m glad to have Dad with us at New Salem this morning to kick off this week of revival meetings.

As you’ve seen and heard by now, the theme of our revival is “Faith and Family”. This week’s theme comes from the heart of a grateful pastor. My prayer is that our families will be encouraged and that revival will break loose in our hearts and in our homes. I hope that you will make every effort to bring your entire family and be here every night.
