A Pastor's Ponderings

October 31, 2024 marked the 507th anniversary of the day that Martin Luther nailed his 95 theses to the door of the Wittenberg Church. As evangelicals, we trace our beginnings to that day in 1517 as the start of the Protestant Reformation. Some Christian writers believe it should be seen as one of the most important dates in the history of the world.

Dr. Ray Pritchard, a preacher that I love reading after, wrote this: "On Reformation Day, we pause to give thanks to God for Martin Luther and for the recovery of the Gospel truth that we are declared righteous in the eyes of God solely based on what our Lord Jesus Christ accomplished for us in His bloody death and victorious resurrection."

But why is Reformation Day the same as Halloween?

Reformation Day falls on the same day as Halloween due to historical religious and cultural factors. On the Roman Catholic liturgical calendar, November 1st is All Saints' Day, a day set aside to honor all the saints recognized by the Catholic Church. The night before All Saints' Day, (October 31st) was a day of preparation for the feast day, and was called All Hallows' Eve.

The name Halloween comes from "All Hallows' Eve" or "All Hallows' Even." The name was changed over time and became "Hallowe'en."

As is often the case, Halloween gained more popularity as a secular holiday with festivities happening on the evening of October 31st. It just happened to coincide with the historical date of Reformation Day.

And now you know ...
