Pray for our church to shine the light of the gospel as we follow God's guidance, for God to send co-laborers who share the same heart, and for our families to be kept in peace and protected from weariness in both body and spirit.

A Pastor's Ponderings

March 8, 2026

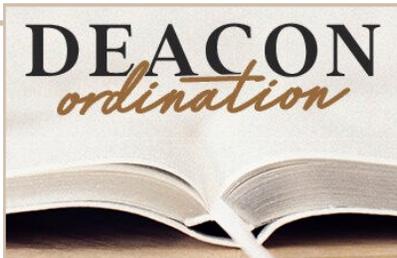

Welcome to another glorious day in the house of the Lord!

We have gathered today for a very special day in the life of our church. We are gathered for the purpose of ordaining men you have selected to the office and work as deacons of New Salem Baptist Church.

Today marks the start of new season of ministry in the on-going history of this great church and I feel we would be remiss if we failed to recognize the service of deacons past and present. To help with that, we have included in your bulletin today a collection of names of the men who have served New Salem as deacons down through the years. Most of these men I did not personally know, but I know some of you did. Pause today and reflect on the service of these men and thank God for them.

To our present deacon fellowship, allow me to express the honor I feel by the opportunity to serve alongside of you. I appreciate your counsel and your friendship. I look forward to many years of service together.

To all our visitors, friends and family, thank you for being a part of this great day. Please make yourself right at home as we worship the Lord together!

Bringing Our Bibles To Church Is Good For Us!

Reason #5

It shows that the Word is a priority in our lives.

When we value something enough to prioritize it, it becomes more important in our lives. In other words, if we make our Bible a priority on Sunday morning, we're more likely to make it a priority on Monday.

Keep in Your Prayers

“...since the day we heard of it, we have not ceased to pray for you...” (Colossians 1:9)
