JOHN 14:27

Once a farmer was interviewing prospective farm hands. The farmer asked one young man "What makes you the best person for the job?" The young man answered, "Well, I can sleep when the wind blows." The farmer thought this to be a strange answer, but he hired the young man anyway because he just seemed so sincere.

Just a few days after putting this young man to work a violent storm blew across the farm in the dead of night. Debris hitting his bedroom window, shook the farmer from his bed. Instinctively, he ran outside to check his barns and stables, afraid of the damage it would cause if all the doors and windows were not secured. To his amazement, he found everything in order and there was no damage. In the last barn he checked he found his new employee sleeping peacefully on a pile of hay.

At that moment the farmer understood what he had meant when he said, "I can sleep when the wind blows." The man was fully prepared when the storms came and his master found him fully at peace ... though the storm howled around him.

How about you? Are you resting in the peace Jesus provides? The kind of peace that lets you sleep when the wind blows?
