A Pastor's Ponderings

November 15, 2026

Moses and God's children faced a Red Sea
Dead end chased by Pharaoh's men. And then…

David went to fight a battle
Everybody said he wouldn't win. And then…

Three Hebrew boys were thrown into a fiery furnace
'Cause they wouldn't bend. And then…

Daniel must've surely thought he'd be
A feast for lions in their den. And then…

Jairus must've been in tears to know
His little daughter's life would end. And then…

Ten lepers cried, "Unclean, unclean"
Believing that they never would be cleansed. And then…

Bartimaeus sat along the roadside helpless
From the years in darkness spent. And then…

Disciples weeping at the garden tomb
Believed their hope had reached a bitter end. And then…

And then what, you ask?

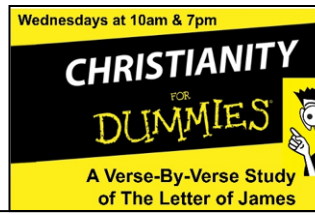

The hand of God did what only God's almighty hand can do
When it seemed impossible, That's when the Father moved
At the end of their rope Barely hanging on to hope
With nowhere left to go
And then… the Lord came through again!

From a song entitled "And Then"
as recorded by The Triumphant Quartet.

Search for it on YouTube and be blessed.
